The Management Committee may exercise all the powers of the Association –

- a) to borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the members of the Association may think fit and secure the same or the payment or performance of any debt, liability, contract, guarantee or other engagement incurred or to be entered into by the Association in any way and in particular by the issue of debentures, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Association's property, both present and future, and to purchase, redeem or pay off any such securities;
- b) to borrow money from members at a rate of interest not exceeding interest at the rate for the time being charged by bankers in Brisbane for overdrawn accounts on money lent, whether the term of the loan be short or long, and to mortgage or charge its property or any part thereof and to issue debentures and other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Association, and to provide and pay off any such securities; and
- c) to invest in such manner as the ordinary/life members of the Association may from time to time determine.

6. MEETINGS

6.1. Management Committee Meetings

The Management Committee shall meet at least six times each calendar year to exercise its functions.

The Management committee can meet face to face, by teleconference or by email.

A special meeting of the Management Committee shall be convened by the secretary on the requisition in writing signed by not less than one third (1/3) of the members of the Management Committee, which requisition shall clearly state the reasons why such special meeting is being convened and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat.

At every meeting of the Management Committee a simple majority of a number equal to the number of members elected and/or appointed to the Management Committee as at the close of the last general meeting of the members, shall constitute a quorum.

Subject as previously provided in this rule, the Management Committee may meet together and regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit: Provided that questions arising at any meeting of the Management Committee shall be decided by a majority of votes and, in the case of equality of votes, the question shall be deemed to be decided in the negative.

A member of the Management Committee shall not vote in respect of any contract or proposed contract with the Association in which the member is interested, or any matter arising thereout, and if the member does so vote the member's vote shall not be counted.

Not less than fourteen (14) days notice shall be given by the secretary to members of the Management Committee of any special meeting of the Management Committee. Such notice shall clearly state the nature of the business to be discussed thereat.

The president shall preside as chairperson at every meeting of the management committee, or if there is no president, or if at any meeting the president is not present within ten (10) minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the vice-president shall be chairperson or if the vice-president is not at the meeting then the members may choose one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.

If within half an hour (½hr) from the time appointed for the commencement of a Management Committee meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members of the Management Committee, shall lapse. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Management Committee may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within half an hour (½hr) from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall lapse.

The Management Committee may delegate any of its powers to a sub-committee consisting of such members of the Association as the Management Committee thinks fit. Any subcommittee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Management Committee.

A sub-committee may elect a chairperson of its meetings. If no such chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the chairperson is not present within ten (10) minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present may choose one of their number to be chairperson at the meeting.

A sub-committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and in the case of an equality of votes the question shall be deemed to be decided in the negative.

All acts done by any meeting of the Management Committee or of a sub-committee or by any person acting as a member of the Management Committee shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such member of the Management Committee or person acting as aforesaid, or that the members of the Management Committee or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a member of the Management Committee.

A resolution in writing signed by all the members of the Management Committee for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Management Committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Management Committee duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one (1) or more members of the Management Committee.

6.2. Annual General Meetings

Member meetings will be held face to face.

The annual general meeting shall be held within three (3) months of the close of the financial year. The annual general meeting will usually be held at the August meeting each year.

The business to be transacted at every annual general meeting shall be:

- a) confirmation of minutes of the last AGM and any recent special general meeting
- b) the receiving of the Management Committee's report and the statement of income and expenditure, assets and liabilities and mortgages, charges and securities affecting the property of the Association for the preceding financial year.
- c) the receiving of the auditors report upon the books and accounts for the preceding financial year;

- d) the election of members of the Management Committee
- e) the appointment of an auditor

The Annual General Meeting shall be empowered to alter, amend, delete or add to the constitution or rules of the Association, provided that such an alteration, amendment deletion or addition shall be given in writing to the Secretary. The alteration, amendment, deletion or addition, to be effective must be approved by at least two thirds (2/3) of the members present at the meeting.

6.3. General Member Meetings

A general member meeting shall be held at least six times each year.

At the AGM or any general meeting the number of members required to constitute a quorum shall be double the number of members presently on the Management Committee plus one (1).

No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum of ordinary/life members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. For the purposes of this rule "member" includes a person attending as a proxy or as representing a corporation which is an ordinary/life member.

If within half (½hr) an hour from the time appointed for the commencement of the annual general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members of the Management Committee or the Association, shall lapse. Reports can be given and an invited speaker may present, but no business can be undertaken.

The secretary shall convene all member meetings of the Association by giving not less than fourteen (14) days notice of any such meeting to the members of the Association.

The manner by which such notice shall be given shall be determined by the Management Committee: Provided that notice of any meeting convened for the purpose of hearing and determining the appeal of a member against the rejection or termination of his membership by the Management Committee, shall be given in writing – by post or by email. Notice of a general meeting shall clearly state the nature of the business to be discussed thereat.

Unless otherwise provided by these Rules, at every general meeting:

- a) the president shall preside as chairperson or if there is no president, or if the president is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the vice-president shall be the chairperson or if the vice-president is not present or is unwilling to act, then the members present shall elect one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting;

- b) the chairperson shall maintain order and conduct the meeting in a proper and orderly manner;
- c) every question, matter or resolution shall be decided by a majority of votes of the ordinary/life members present;
- d) every ordinary/life member present shall be entitled to one (1) vote and in the case of an equality of votes the chairperson shall have a second or casting vote: Provided that no member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting if the member's annual subscription is more than one (1) month in arrears at the date of the meeting;
- e) voting shall be by show of hands or a division of ordinary/life members, unless not less than one-fifth (1/5) of the members present demand a ballot, in which event there shall be a secret ballot. The chairperson shall appoint two (2) members to conduct a secret ballot in such manner as the chairperson shall determine and the result of the ballot as declared by the chairperson shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the ballot was demanded;
- f) an ordinary/life member may vote in person or by proxy or by attorney and on a show of hands every person present who is an ordinary/life member or a representative of an ordinary/life member shall have one (1) vote and in a secret ballot every ordinary/life member present in person or by proxy or by attorney or other duly authorised representative shall have one (1) vote;
- g) the instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing, in the common or usual form under the hand of the appointer or of their attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointer is a corporation, either under seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised. A proxy may be but need not be a member of the Association. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a secret ballot;
- h) where it is desired to afford ordinary/life members an opportunity of voting for or against a resolution the instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or a form as near thereto as circumstances permit:-

REDLAND ORGANIC GROWERS INCORPORATED.
